ALTAR GUILD NEWS

Judy Wickersham & Wendy Seward attended to the Lord's Altar for May including set up for the Picnic

Thank you to Susan King and Olga Roesch for preparing God's altar for worship during June.

Anyone interested in this rewarding ministry, please contact Marian Day.

Remember to sign up to donate altar flowers by signing the flower chart in the Parish Hall and putting your completed donation form and check in the offering plate 2 weeks prior to your chosen Sunday.

God's Peace,
Marian Day

ECW NEWS

ECW has been busy these past few months with several events. In March, twenty of us attended a baked potato bar luncheon at Joan Ulvog's lovely home. Our speaker was New Bern author and quilter, Karen Dodd. She presented an overview of her novels, and a glimpse of her writing process. In closing, she shared some of her amazing quilts and quilted jackets. Her books could be purchased during our business meeting.

In April, many of us were busy with the Oriental Tour of Homes. This event is a joint fundraiser with the Historical Museum. Our May garage sale efforts (and those of our strong men volunteers), during the Village Wide Yard Sale, netted approximately $900.

We have a couple of plans for the month of July. We hope that many of you will sign up to help run the St. Thomas food booth during Croaker Festival. We've also planned for a refreshing pool party, and sandwich swap lunch, at Shine Landing, on Tuesday, July 29th. Judy Wickersham will be our hostess.

All women attending St. Thomas are part of ECW. We hope to see you at these future events.
